in the 1970s queer jews became excited by the developments of the gay liberation movement in both the us and europe until then they were not able to express their queerness in jewish communities and hoped for new inclusive spaces yet they quickly realized that the movement was not as welcoming as anticipated thus they started to organize in february 1972 the world s first queer jewish group became publicly visible in london with its symposium the jewish homosexual in society the jewish gay group began tackling the exclusion of non heteronormative jews in british jewish and queer communities soon after two more queer jewish groups formed beit haverim house of friends in paris and sjalhomo a neologism of shalom and homosexual in amsterdam besides their goal of emancipation these groups brought together their members based on shared experiences as both jewish and queer opening up much needed spaces for social encounters the groups also established a europe wide support network that enabled international collaboration for more than a decade this study archives these groups histories and that of their network by doing so it broadens prevalent narratives of europe s post world war ii jewry and queers the discipline of jewish history established in the 1950s by musician and engineer pierre schaeffer the groupe de recherches musicales would become the nerve center for avant garde artists experimenting with sound and acoustics as well as the birthplace of a genre of music making enabled by new recording technologies and sound pioneers musique concrète Ivelyne gayou herself a researcher composer and producer at the grm tells the history of the storied institution through the people works technologies and research developed there placing musique concrète within a broad historical context extending from the early twentieth century avant garde s experiments with noise to the development of techniques in sound recording at the studio d essai in the 1940s and later in sound synthesis gayou shows how recording technology made it possible for composers to not only create music from sounds in the world around them but also create acousmatic music novel sounds without a visible connection to their source available in english translation for the first time this updated edition will be an important resource for readers interested in the pioneering works and techniques of schaeffer and his contemporaries as well as their influence on the makers of new music and the contemporary avant garde on tyranny remains a perennial favorite possessing a timelessness that few philosophical or scholarly debates have ever achieved on one hand on tyranny is the first book length work in le Strauss's extended study of Xenophon and his restatement retains a vivacity and directness that is sometimes absent in his later works on the other tyranny and wisdom is perhaps the most succinct yet fullest articulation of Alexandre Kojève's overall political thought and it presents what may be the most uncompromising alternative to Strauss's position as a whole this volume contains for the first time a comprehensive and critical examination of the debate from scholars well versed in the thought of Strauss Kojève Hegel Heidegger and the end of history thesis of particular interest will be the appendix which offers for the first time Kojève's unabridged response to Strauss a response previously available only from the fonds Kojève at le Bibliothèque nationale de France accessible to students and scholars alike this volume works equally well in the classroom and as a resource for more advanced research

Hank Hanegraaff documents the danger of looking for God in all the wrong places and goes behind the scenes into the wildly popular and bizarre world of contemporary revivalism Hanegraaff masterfully exposes the stark contrast between these deeds of the flesh and a genuine work of the spirit by contrasting modern revivals with the scriptural examples of God's movement among his people due to government secrecy the public never learned of the numerous UFO incursions at strategic nuclear weapons installations where they disabled ICBM missiles and even activated their launch codes they never heard about UFO encounters reported by police officers civilian and military pilots and astronauts and they were never told the real facts of the Roswell event the volume of evidence suggesting we are not alone and probably never have been is overwhelming it suggests an alien agenda to accelerate the evolution of the human race to understand what is happening requires knowledge of what is going on today as well as the past particularly during the biblical era much has been learned through the freedom of information act from whistleblowers and government and military officials this book connects the dots suggesting what aliens have been doing for the past several thousand years
